ARMY ACQUISITION REGIONAL ROTATIONAL/DEVELOPMENTAL ASSIGNMENT PROGRAM (RDAP)

Announcement Number RDAP-01

Opening Date: 15 Nov 2001

Closing Date: 17 Dec 2001

Area of Consideration: National Capital Region – All sources

This announcement is directed to Army Acquisition & Technology Workforce (A&TWF) civilians who meet the qualifications as listed below in “Who May Apply.” Individuals interested in participating in the RDAP for YG2001 must respond under this announcement. The length of assignment will normally be one year from date of placement; however, the length of assignment may vary from 6 months to 24 months based on organizational and RDAP participant’s needs. This is NOT a promotion opportunity.

GENERAL

- ❖ The Regional Rotational/Developmental Assignment Program (RDAP) is a regional developmental training program that offers training, leadership and other career development opportunities
- ❖ The objectives of the RDAP are to broaden and enhance A&TWF member’s management and/or leadership skills in any Acquisition Career Field; develop multifunctional acquisition skills and competencies; provide opportunities for increased levels of responsibility; gain required experience necessary to become certified in another acquisition career field; and enhance skills through specialized acquisition/leadership on-the-job training.
- ❖ Once an individual is selected to the RDAP and assigned to a developmental position and geographic location, no changes will be made in the assignment for the duration of the RDAP period except for compassionate or personal hardship reasons. The Regional Director, in conjunction with the parent and gaining organizations, is the approval authority for such exceptions.
- ❖ Interested candidates should read the RDAP policy and procedures found at <http://dacm.rdaisa.army.mil> for detailed information and application forms.
- ❖ The parent organization is responsible for the salary of the RDAP participant.
